BYLAWS
FOUNDATION FOR EXCELLENCE AT WOODLAND CHRISTIAN SCHOOLS

a Nonprofit Christian Corporation

PREAMBLE

We, the Board of Directors of Woodland Christian School, are mindful of the biblical call to “[t]rain a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not turn from it.” We strive to make Woodland Christian School a place for the Christian education of all children and believe that a Christian school provides an excellent forum for training children in the way they should go. Therefore, we adopt the following Bylaws for the organization of Foundation for Excellence at Woodland Christian Schools and operation of Woodland Christian School (hereinafter, “WCS,” “WCMS,” “WCHS,” “Preschool,” the “Corporation,” or the “School”), which are devoted exclusively to charitable, educational, and religious purposes.

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of this Corporation is “Foundation for Excellence at Woodland Christian Schools.”

ARTICLE II - STATEMENTS OF FAITH AND LIFESTYLE

Each member of the Board of Directors and each employee of the Corporation, having accepted Jesus Christ as his or her personal Savior, shall subscribe annually in writing to the following Statement of Faith:

1. We believe the Bible to be the inspired, infallible, authoritative, and inerrant Word of God (2 Timothy 3:16; 2 Peter 1:21).
2. We believe there is one God, eternally existent in three persons—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit (Genesis 1:1; Matthew 28:19; John 10:30).
3. *We believe in the deity of Christ (John 10:33),
His virgin birth (Isaiah 7:14; Matthew 1:23; Luke 1:35),
His sinless life (Hebrews 4:15; 7:26), His miracles (John 2:11),
His vicarious and atoning death (1 Corinthians 15:3; Ephesians 1:7; Hebrews 2:9),
His Resurrection (John 11:25; 1 Corinthians 15:4),
His Ascension to the right hand of God (Mark 16:19),
His personal return in power and glory (Acts 1:11; Revelation 19:11).*
4. We believe in the absolute necessity of regeneration by the Holy Spirit for salvation, because of the exceeding sinfulness of human nature; that men are justified only by faith in the shed blood of Christ; and that only by God's grace and through faith alone are we saved (John 3:16–19, 5:24; Romans 3:23, 5:8–9; Ephesians 2:8–10; Titus 3:5).

5. We believe in the resurrection of both the saved and the lost; those who are saved receive eternal life and those who are lost receive eternal condemnation (John 5:28–29).
6. We believe in the spiritual unity of believers in our Lord Jesus Christ (Romans 8:9; 1 Corinthians 2:12–13; Galatians 3:26–28).
7. We believe in the present ministry of the Holy Spirit by whose indwelling the Christian is enabled to live a godly life (Romans 8:13–14; 1 Corinthians 3:16, 6:19–20; Ephesians 4:30, 5:18).

Each member of the Board of Directors and each employee of the Corporation shall abide by the following Statement of Lifestyle:

The Bible is the ultimate and final source for determining our personal, professional, and public morality. As a follower of Christ, we each submit our will to God in accordance with the Bible.

ARTICLE III – MISSION STATEMENT

Woodland Christian School exists by God's grace and for His glory to educate and prepare students for college and Christian life. By faith in Christ, our students, parents, and staff can change the world.

ARTICLE IV - PHILOSOPHY OF EDUCATION

A Christian school is dependent on a biblical philosophy that provides the correct worldview and essential truths for life so that children may be prepared to assume their proper place in the home, the church, and the community. Accordingly, the following points summarize the Philosophy of Education for Woodland Christian School:

Education-

We will provide a safe and loving environment for students to learn. We will seek excellence in all that we do. We will work with parents to prepare and equip their student for college, the student's future vocation, and the rest of the student's life.

Service-

With Christ as our example, students will learn the power of serving others with humility. We will teach students to look not only to their own interests, but also to the interests of others.

Character-

Students and staff will strive to live like Jesus Christ and be a light at home, at school, and in the community. Whether in school or out, students and staff will be challenged to honor those in authority, be characterized by the fruit of the Spirit, behave responsibly, treat everyone respectfully, and excel in all they do, for the glory of God.

Faith-

Students will receive biblical training to help them grow in their knowledge of and faith in Jesus Christ. By God's grace, students and families will come to know Jesus Christ as their Savior and will communicate God's love to those with whom they interact.

Section 2 - General Responsibilities

Woodland Christian School's Board of Directors (the "Board") shall oversee the continuing operation of WCS and oversee the School's business affairs. The responsibilities of the Board shall include, but not be limited to, creating policy; making final personnel decisions, including approving all hires or staff disciplinary measures pursuant to other provisions of the Bylaws; establishing tuition and fees; promoting Christian education in the community; and praying for the ministry of the School. Directors will, with the guidance of the Administrator, strive to stay abreast of trends in education and pertinent research, education policy and the relevant laws, and best-practices for private Christian schools and school boards. If the WCS Administrator position is vacant, the Board will immediately appoint an interim administrator until the position is filled.

Section 3 - Director Number and Tenure

- A. The Board shall be comprised of no less than five members and no more than nine.
- B. Each Director shall serve on the Board of Directors for a term of three years, unless such service is terminated by resignation or dismissal. Any Director may serve a second, successive three-year term. After six consecutive years of service on the Board, the Director shall step down from service for one year before being eligible again for the Board. A term year is typically July 1 through June 30.
- C. Terms of service on the Board should be staggered in such a manner that no more than one-third of the Board of Directors will complete their term of service in any given year.
- D. It is recommended that no more than one-half of the Board of Directors come from any one, local church.
- E. No full-time, salaried employee or spouse of any full-time, salaried employee shall be eligible to serve on the Board of Directors. The Administrator shall serve as a non-voting member of the Board of Directors.

Section 4 - Director Compensation

Voting members of the Board of Directors shall receive no compensation or tangible benefit for their services. The Board of Directors may authorize the reimbursement of expenses incurred by any Director in the performance of official business for the School or the Board of Directors, as further noted in Article XV, Section 4, of the Bylaws.

ARTICLE VI - NEW DIRECTORS

Section 1 - Vacancies on the Board of Directors.

A vacancy on the Board of Directors shall be deemed to exist in the case of a Director's expiration of term, resignation before expiration of the term, death or incapacity, or removal from the Board of Directors.

Section 2 - Nominations for the Board of Directors.

- A. Candidates for the Board of Directors shall be nominated by the majority of the Board of Directors or the Nominating Committee (See Article VII, Section 2B).
- B. The Nominating Committee shall interview each nominee and decide whether the nominee should be considered formally by the Board of Directors. The interview should explore the nominee's interest, suitability, and eligibility, based on the qualifications, beliefs, and responsibilities specified in Article V.

Section 3 - Appointment of Directors.

Any vacancy on the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority resolution of the remaining Directors. In the instance of an unexpired term, each Director appointed to hold the vacated position shall hold office until the expiration of that term. Alternatively, at the Board's discretion, the newly appointed board member may be asked to serve a full, three-year term, which will be deemed to have started on the preceding July 1.

Section 4 - Resignation or Dismissal from Board of Directors

- A. After prayerful consideration, any Director may resign from office. He or she shall tender his or her resignation in writing to the Board of Directors.
- B. Any Director may be removed from the Board of Directors for failure to meet the qualifications set forth in Article V; for excessive absence from regular and special meetings of the Board of Directors; or whenever such removal, in the judgment of the Board, would be in the best interest of the Corporation. Removal shall require a two-thirds vote of the Board of Directors.

- C. In view of the serious nature of a Director's involuntary removal from office, every effort shall be made by all parties to show Christian compassion and forbearance. Corrective measures and actions designed to promote genuine repentance and personal restoration shall be applied. Dismissal from the Board of Directors shall be a matter of "last resort." Any unpleasantness surrounding such action shall be dealt with quickly and take into account the dignity and personal privacy of the individual in question.
- D. In the event a Director who has left the Board of Directors was an officer, another member shall be designated by majority resolution of the Board of Directors to assume the responsibilities of the office now vacant.

ARTICLE VII - DUTIES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1 - Duties of the Board of Directors.

- A. The Board of Directors will set the spiritual tone for the School. Directors shall pray both individually and corporately for the administration, faculty, staff, parents, and children of the School. They will be inclined to prayer, ever-mindful of their own dependence on God, and seek His grace and wisdom to be manifest in their leadership.
- B. The primary function of the Board of Directors is to set School policy, while the daily administration is the responsibility of the Administrator. The Board's policies set the boundaries within which the Administrator functions. The Board of Directors will maintain authority over the overall direction of the School.
- C. The Board of Directors' authority is corporate. Individual Directors have authority to act on behalf of WCS only when the Board of Directors is convened in regular or special session. There shall be only one line of authority, which will flow from the Board of Directors, through its President, to the Administrator (or, in the event that the role of administrator is vacant, the Principals) who is (or who are) charged with communicating and executing Board action to faculty, staff, students, and parents as appropriate.
- D. The Board of Directors shall approve all contracts related to the procurement, maintenance, and overall management of the School's property and capital equipment.
- E. The Board of Directors shall oversee the general financial operation of the School by approving annual budgets, devising methods of raising necessary operating funds, and determining how these funds shall be disbursed. The Board shall arrange for independent financial reviews whenever those are deemed appropriate for accountability or transparency. An independent audit may be conducted at the discretion of the Board. The Finance Committee shall review the results of any review or audit and make recommendations to the Board.

- F. The Board of Directors shall have the authority to acquire and dispose of assets – real, personal, tangible, and intangible – and to borrow money in the name of the School. No financial decision should be made or action taken if it is reasonably foreseeable that the action will prevent WCS from having a balanced operating budget.
- G. The fiscal period for the School shall run from July 1 through June 30.
- H. The Board of Directors shall exercise due care to ensure that the School operates according to accepted legal principles, which should include, but not be limited to, obtaining competent legal advice and considering relevant safety and personnel issues.
- I. A significant duty of the Board of Directors is the selection of the WCS Administrative Officer ("Administrator"). The Administrator will implement the Board's policies and directives and manage the day-to-day operation of the School. The Board shall conduct an annual evaluation of the Administrator's performance.
- J. Upon recommendation by the Administrator, faculty and staff of the School shall be appointed by the Board of Directors after due consideration of their spiritual and academic qualifications. Employees shall be appointed only if they can be trusted to meet the spiritual and educational objectives of the School.
- K. The Board of Directors, with the knowledge of the Administrator, shall have the authority to dismiss anyone associated with the School who does not fulfill the requirements set forth in these Bylaws or in their employment agreement, or who, in the Board's view, fails to live by biblical standards.
- L. The Board of Directors shall oversee the creation and maintenance of a Policies and Procedures Manual and a Student/Parent Manual. These manuals should be updated, reviewed, and approved by the Board annually. The manuals should also be made available to all employees and school families.
- M. The Board of Directors shall approve educational programs and standards of achievement for the School. This shall include review and approval by the Board of Directors of all textbooks and courses of study recommended by the School's faculty under the leadership of the Administrator. The Board will consider how the educational program fits with the overall direction and principles of the School. The Board's review is not intended to be an academic review.

- N. The Board of Directors shall evaluate itself annually during the month of June. Each member shall also evaluate his or her willingness and ability to continue in a Board position. Individual Directors shall annually sign the "Leadership Commitment" form attached hereto.
- O. When approached by other parents or staff members, Directors must understand and follow the dispute resolution model found in Matthew 18. Directors must be good listeners (James 1:19) and whenever possible refer matters to the Administrator.
- P. At least twice a year, the President of the Board will select from the Board of Directors a team of two Directors to visit WCS during a regular school day. This visit shall be spent observing the School's daily functions and shall include the examination of facilities and grounds. A report of their findings shall be given to the entire Board of Directors and entered into the minutes of the next regularly scheduled meeting.

Section 2 – Advisory/Service Committees

- A. The Board of Directors shall operate using two types of committees: advisory committees and service committees. Advisory committees are formed and their members selected by the Board of Directors. They advise the Board to promote sound decision-making. Service committees are comprised of volunteers who want to serve the School with their time and talent. Committees may make recommendations to the Board via the Administrator or the Director of Operations and Development. Whenever possible, all committee meeting times and locations shall be posted in the School office at least one week prior to a meeting. The meeting location shall occur on School property, unless WCS facilities are ill-equipped to host the meeting. In such case, the meeting location will be held in a public facility within the City of Woodland.
- B. The Chairman of all committees will be appointed by the Board of Directors. The Director of Operations and Development will maintain and provide a complete list of committee members to the Board of Directors. The following committees are hereby designated Advisory Committees:

Finance:

This committee provides oversight and accountability with regard to WCS's financial accounts and budgets.

Capital Development:

This committee recommends and develops fundraising strategies for WCS. This committee also will pursue grants and other finance sources that will improve WCS.

School Board Nomination Committee:

This committee accepts and reviews School Board nominations. It ensures that candidates have met the qualifications that are set out by these Bylaws and recommends qualified candidates to the School Board of Directors.

- C. The following committees are hereby designated as Service Committees:

Facilities:

This committee inspects WCS facilities and makes recommendations regarding repairs, improvements, and future campus development.

Technical Support:

This committee oversees and makes recommendations regarding WCS's technical needs. Examples of systems covered by this committee include, but are not limited to, web site design/maintenance, software maintenance/upgrades, network design, etc.

- D. The Board of Directors and the Administrator are ex officio members of all committees.
- E. All committees shall keep minutes of each meeting. Meeting minutes will be provided to the Board of Directors and made available to the public within seven days of the meeting in electronic format through the School office or the website.
- F. Any issue pertaining to individual staff members or students shall not be discussed or reviewed by any committee.
- G. The Board of Directors may from time to time establish ad hoc committees made up of Directors or other interested individuals to deal with specific issues involving WCS. Upon completion of its assigned task, an ad hoc committee shall dissolve.

ARTICLE VIII - OFFICERS OF THE BOARD

The Board of Directors shall annually elect Officers of the Board from among its members. The duties of the Officers are as follows:

If the Secretary is not at a meeting, the President or the Secretary shall delegate the task of recording Board business to another Director. The Secretary shall have custody of all Board records and shall conduct necessary correspondence on behalf of the Board.

The meeting shall occur on WCS property unless such facilities are ill-equipped to host the meeting. In such case, the meeting location will be held in a public facility in the City of Woodland.

In such case, written notice of the subject or topic shall be given to the President one week prior to the scheduled meeting. Absent an emergency, no official action can be taken on said subject until the next official Board meeting. Executive sessions may have in attendance all Directors present at said meeting, the Administrator of the School, and any other persons who are specifically asked to attend this session by the Board President. When the executive session is for the purpose of evaluating the Administrator or the Director of Operations and Development, that individual may be asked not to attend.

This amended notation shall only include the following: date and time of the public disclosure, names of all Directors who participated in the public disclosure, the subject matter that was disclosed, any relevant Board action taken before or after the public disclosure, and a description of how the action was made public.

Section 2 - Special Meetings

- A. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the President of the Board or by a majority of the Directors. Matters of a sensitive nature may be handled as set forth in Article IX, Section 1, G – Executive Session.

Section 4 - Presumption of Assent

Any member of the Board who is present at a meeting of the Board of Directors at which action is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless his or her dissent is entered into the minutes of the meeting or unless the Director files his or her written dissent to the action taken with the Secretary prior to the next regularly scheduled meeting. The right to dissent shall not apply to a Director who has voted in favor of the action.

Section 5 - Quorum

- A. At all meetings of the Board of Directors, whether regular or special, the presence of a majority of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Only members may vote at meetings of the Board of Directors, and proxy votes are not valid.

The phrase Director or Officer shall also include the estate or personal representative of a Director or Officer, unless the context requires otherwise.
- B. The term proceeding shall mean any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, whether formal or informal; any appeal in such action, suit, or proceeding; and any inquiry or investigation that could lead to such action, suit, or proceeding.
- C. The term party includes an individual who is, was, or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding.
- D. The term liability shall mean any obligation to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty, fine, or reasonable expense incurred with respect to a proceeding.
- D. The term official capacity shall mean the office of Director in the Corporation, and, when used with respect to a person other than a Director, shall mean the office in the Corporation held by the Officer or the employment, fiduciary, or agency relationship undertaken by the employee or agent on behalf of the Corporation, but in neither case shall include service for any foreign or domestic corporation or for any other person or other enterprise.

Section 2 - General Provisions

The Corporation may indemnify any person who is or was a party or is threatened to be made a party to any proceeding by reason of the fact that such person is or was a Director or Officer of the Corporation, against expenses (including attorney's fees), liability, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such proceeding if such person (a) acted in good faith, (b) reasonably believed, in the case of conduct in an official capacity with the Corporation, that the conduct was in the best interests of the Corporation, and, in all other cases, that the conduct was at least not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and (c) with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that the conduct was unlawful. However, no person shall be entitled to indemnification under this Section 2 either (a) in connection with a proceeding brought by or in the right of the Corporation in which the Director or Officer was adjudged liable to the Corporation, or (b) in connection with any other proceeding charging improper personal benefit to the Director or Officer, whether or not involving action in that person's official capacity, in which the Director or Officer is ultimately adjudged liable on the basis that the Director or Officer improperly received personal benefit. Indemnification under this Section 2 in connection with a proceeding brought by or in the right of the Corporation shall be limited to reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding. The termination of any action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, or conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not of itself be determinative that the person did not meet the standard of conduct set forth in this Section 2.

Section 3 - Successful Defense on the Merits; Expenses

To the extent that a Director or Officer of the Corporation has been wholly successful on the merits in defense of any proceeding to which he or she was a party, such person shall be indemnified against reasonable expenses (including attorney's fees) actually and reasonably incurred in connection with such proceeding.

Section 4 - Determination of Right to Indemnification

Any indemnification under Section 2 (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in each specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the Director or Officer is permissible under the circumstances because such person met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 2. Such determination shall be made by the Board of Directors (a) by a majority vote of a quorum of disinterested Directors who at the time of the vote are not, were not, and are not threatened to be made parties to the proceeding, or (b) if such a quorum cannot be obtained, by the vote of a majority of the members of the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors, provided that committee shall consist of two or more Directors who are not parties to the proceeding (Directors who are parties to the proceeding may participate in the designation of Directors to serve on such committee), or (c) if such a quorum of the Board of Directors cannot be obtained or there is no Executive Committee, or even if such a quorum is obtained or the Executive Committee exists, but such quorum or committee so directs, then by independent legal counsel selected by the Board of Directors in accordance with the preceding procedures. Authorization of indemnification and evaluation regarding the reasonableness of expenses shall be made in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is permissible, except that, if the determination that indemnification is permissible is made by independent legal counsel, authorization of indemnification and evaluation of legal expenses shall be made by the body that selected such counsel.

Section 5 - Other Employees and Agents

The Corporation shall indemnify such other employees and agents of the Corporation to the same extent and in the same manner as is provided above in Section 2 with respect to Directors or Officers, by adopting a resolution by a majority of the members of the Board of Directors, specifically identifying by name or by position the employees or agents entitled to indemnification.

They shall actively serve and worship in a local, evangelical church whose doctrine aligns with Article II of the Bylaws and agree to the scriptural principles for leadership set forth in Article V, Section 1.

ARTICLE XIII - DISPUTE RESOLUTION

The Board of Directors shall ensure that each contract for employment at WCS shall contain language for dispute resolution as follows:

Leadership Commitment

Knowing that God has spoken clearly in His Word concerning the character and responsibility of a leader, I wholeheartedly agree with the following statements:

1. I will seek to maintain a close, intimate walk with the Lord by regularly spending time alone with Him, in His Word and in prayer.
2. I will be a diligent student of God's Word.
3. I will endeavor to walk continuously in step with the Holy Spirit.
4. I will pray for those who serve with me as Directors, for the School Administrator, for the faculty and staff of the School, for the students of the School, and for this ministry's testimony in the community.
5. I will be diligent in preparation for all Board meetings and participate in duly-appointed committees.
6. I will faithfully attend all meetings of the Board unless I am hindered from doing so by compelling reasons such as illness or necessary travel. When I am unable to attend, I will notify the Board President in advance, if possible. I will follow up with the Board Secretary and/or other Directors to be informed about the proceedings of the meeting that I missed.
7. My fellowship, speech, and manner with my colleagues on the Board and with any members of the School family will be characterized by love, grace, and humility. With the help of the Holy Spirit, I will refrain from expressing demeaning attitudes through criticism and complaint.
8. While respecting divergent views and convictions expressed by my colleagues on the Board, I will express my views and differences of opinion constructively and with grace. Once the Board has discussed and voted on an issue, and regardless of my personal vote on that issue, I will publicly support the Board's action.
9. I will be an encourager, acting with integrity and discretion, and will endeavor to maintain the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace.

I have studied and prayed about these statements of commitment, and I believe God would have me serve as a Director according to these standards.

Code of Conduct for Comments During Board Meetings

The Board of Directors encourages parent and teacher involvement and input. In order to maintain a fair, professional and God honoring forum for public comments during regular Board meetings, the following rules will apply:

1. Public comments may include statements or questions. At the discretion of the Chair, immediate responses may be given; otherwise, questions will be considered and answered in writing in a timely manner by the appropriate individual(s).
2. All comments will be made in a manner that glorifies God and demonstrates humility. (Phil. 2:3-4; 1 Cor. 10:13 – “So whether you eat or drink or whatever you do, do it all for the glory of God.”)
3. Speakers will make every effort to speak the truth in love and to verify facts before commenting; also, speakers will not knowingly make comments that are unconfirmed, factually incorrect, or based on rumor. (Eph. 4:25 – “Therefore each of you must put off falsehood and speak truthfully to his neighbor, for we are all members of one body.”)
4. All comments will be respectful, reflecting respect for people as bearers of the image of God and demonstrating a desire to build up rather than tear down. (Eph. 4:29 – “Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths, but only what is helpful for building others up according to their needs, that it may benefit those who listen.”)
5. Guests will listen and not interrupt others or speak out of order. (James 1:19 – “My dear brothers, take note of this: Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry.”)
6. Speakers will be respectful of the three minutes allotted time for comments or questions.
7. Comments or questions by guests outside of the public comment period is inappropriate and will not be allowed. Those who disrupt a meeting in this way may be asked to leave and excluded from future meetings.

Acknowledging the call of Christians to treat one another with love and deference, as taught by and demonstrated by our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, I commit to abide by the above instructions in both attitude and action.
